

I am asking that you do not change Wisconsin's Do Not Call list law. The present law works very well. We still get all the phone calls from charities and pseudo charities but the general sales calls have stopped. I will consider it a major infringement on my privacy if the law is changed to allow businesses I have done business with in the past year and a half to keep calling me. Thank you for your consideration. Sincerely, Margaret Mitchell